

SYLLABUS ON WORLDWIDE ANGLICANISM IN THE 21st CENTURY

First Session (Oct. 27)

The terms 'Anglican' and 'Anglicanism'. Emergence and evolution. Challenges of a satisfactory definition.

Recommended readings:

a) The Challenge of Definition: Conflict and Concord in Anglicanism by C.K. Robertson in Anglican and Episcopal History Volume 76, December 2009, Number 4 edited by The Historical Society of the Episcopal Church.

b) What is Anglicanism? by Paul Avis in The Study of Anglicanism edited by Stephen Sykes, John Booty and Jonathan Knight. SPCK/Fortress Press, 2003.

Second Session (Nov. 3)

The Anglican Communion. Instruments of cohesion. The tension between local authority and cohesive directives. Present-day challenges.

Recommended Reading:

Identity and Diversity pp.101-116 in The Anglican Vision by James E. Griffiss, Cowley Publications, 2007.

Third Session (Nov. 17)

Non-Anglo-Saxon Anglicanism. A New Model of Communion. Shape of the Anglican Communion at present.

Recommended readings:

a) The Exigency of Times and Occasions by Ian T. Douglas in Beyond Colonial Anglicanism: The Anglican Communion in the Twenty-First Century edited by Ian T. Douglas and Kwok Pui-Lan, Church Publishing Incorporated, New York, 2001.

b) Radically Rethinking Global Mission in Toward 2015: A Church Odyssey by Richard Kew and Roger White, Cowley Publications, 1997.

Fourth Session (Dec. 1st)

The Episcopal Church from a Hispanic/Latino context. Rethinking the Latino Youth Ministry.

Recommended Reading:

Rethinking Latino Youth Ministry by Rev. Elizabeth Támez Méndez in Apuntes: Reflexiones teológicas desde el contexto Hispano-Latino, Volume 37, No. 2, Summer 2017, published by Perkins School of Theology, Dallas, Texas.

Rev. Carlos E. Expósito.

Missioner for Latino Congregation at St. Paul's Cathedral.