Sacred Nature: Restoring Our Ancient Bond with the Natural World by Karen Armstrong

In this short but deeply powerful book, Karen Armstrong, a historian of religion, re-sacralizes nature for modern times. Drawing on her vast knowledge of the world's religious traditions, she vividly describes nature's central place in spirituality across the centuries. In bringing this age-old wisdom to life, Armstrong shows modern readers how to rediscover nature's potency and form a connection to something greater than ourselves.

Presiding Episcopal Bishop Michael Curry on Creation Care:

“We follow Jesus, so we love the world God loves. Concerned for the global climate emergency, drawing on diverse approaches for our diverse contexts, we commit to form and restore loving, liberating, life-giving relationships with all of Creation.”
