Discernment and Formation Handbook

Grace to you and peace!

We are pleased to make available this updated version of the Discernment and Formation Handbook, which we hope will be a helpful resource, both for those who are considering ordained ministry as well as for the leaders and helpers who guide and accompany them in the discernment of God's call. With that in mind, we offer here a stepwise description of the discernment process, with instructions, and include checklists to help keep participants on track.

The discernment process in the Diocese of San Diego is guided by the Commission on Ministry (COM), whose broad responsibilities include advising and assisting the bishop regarding the ministry of all baptized persons; coordinating the ordination process; recruiting, evaluating and recommending those who are called and prepared to serve God in the Church. Those who set out on the path of ministerial discernment will experience many points of contact with the COM and its members, who will be happy to answer questions about the process described in this handbook. Also, please know that you are always welcome to contact the chair of the commission directly at com@edsd.org.

May God bless and keep you always,

The Commission on Ministry of the Episcopal Diocese of San Diego

A Brief Overview of the Discernment and Formation Process for Ordained Ministry

Discernment and formation are intertwining threads that tie together the steps and stages to ordained ministry. Through an ongoing process of shared discernment, the inquirer and God's People—the Church—explore how God may be calling the inquirer to use her/his gifts to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ. Formation is likewise a process—a process of ministerial growth and development that includes spiritual reflection, academic studies, field education, congregational internships, community-service placements, etc. Those who initiate this journey of discernment and formation may, in time, find themselves on the path to ordained ministry by way of four distinct stages, which are described below in very general terms:

1. Inquirer

During this initial stage of discernment, the inquirer engages in exploratory conversations and meetings that may lead to formal application for nominee status. Typically, this part of the process spans about a year. Fuller details for this and the other stages can be found elsewhere in this handbook.

2. Nominee

The nominee continues the discernment that was begun as an inquirer, but more intentionally and with greater focus. This stage includes completing various administrative requirements, psychological evaluations, and also some formational projects. At the end of this stage, the nominees will join the bishop and the COM in a discernment retreat, after which the bishop will let each one know whether they advance to the postulant stage.

3. Postulant

During the postulant stage, the discernor typically assumes greater involvement in academic, spiritual, and practical formation for ordained ministry, as approved in consultation with the bishop. With essential input from the COM and the diocese's Standing Committee, the bishop will decide on the postulant's admission to the candidate stage.

4. Candidate

At this stage, the candidate completes any remaining requirements and undergoes final evaluations of readiness for ordained ministry. Final approval for ordination will come from the bishop, following the required input from the COM and the Standing Committee. Candidacy ends at ordination for vocational deacons, but for those on the priesthood track, it continues past diaconal ordination until priestly ordination.

Stage 1: Inquirer

The inquirer stage, which may conclude with your congregation recommending you for the nominee stage, is analogous to the information-gathering, decisions, and preparations one makes to ensure a good start to a significant journey. The various steps of the inquiry stage are designed to help you and the Church community discern God's will regarding a call to ordained ministry. Although you may be the first to sense the call, the discernment of an ordained vocation is not your purview alone, for the People of God are always an integral part of this process.

A. Getting Started

Here follows a list of the required preliminary activities that will guide your entry into the inquiry process.

1. Congregational Participation and Residence

Prior to any formal application, we require that you already be a resident member of a congregation within the Episcopal Diocese of San Diego for at least one year. This provides time for you to have lived and worshipped in this diocese and, ideally, for your sponsoring clergy to have gotten to know you.

2. Meetings with Your Congregation's Clergy-in-Charge

You will need to meet with the clergy member in charge of your congregation to discuss your perceived call by God, and you may initiate these conversations six months into your residency. This is an essential first step, as your clergy's letter of recommendation will be required for you to continue this journey.

3. Listening Hearts Conversation

You may, in consultation with your clergy-in-charge, schedule a Listening Hearts conversation for further guidance regarding your ministerial discernment. A small group of trained discerners will pray, listen, and explore with you your call to serve God. You can make these arrangements with the chair of the COM.

4. Commission on Ministry (COM) Day of Information

This informative event usually takes place in February, but you may request permission from the bishop to watch a video of it as an alternative, if one is available, at edsd.org/commission-on-ministry/. Please register in advance of the meeting, by following the details announced in the diocesan newsletter or by contacting Erin McDougal, the bishop's executive assistant (EMcDougal@edsd.org, 619-481-5454). The purpose of this event is to introduce you to the journey of discernment and formation, and to describe the commitment you and others will be making along the way. After experiencing this meeting, you should continue the conversation with your congregation's clergy and, if you are in mutual agreement, move forward with the next steps.

B. Following Through to Nomination

When you have completed the above activities of prayerful inquiry and discernment, and if you and your sponsoring clergy member feel that you are ready to seek nomination to the formal process of ordination discernment, then please continue stepwise through the following, as indicated.

How to Submit Forms, Documents, Letters, etc.

Please submit all requested materials to the Executive Assistant to the Bishop: Erin McDougal
(EMcDougal@edsd.org, 619-481-5454),
who will direct them to the appropriate recipients.

1. Submission of Initial Application Materials – DUE MARCH 1

Please submit the below-listed application-documents to the bishop's executive assistant (see contact info above).

- Spiritual Autobiography

All of us have a spiritual autobiography to tell, and no two people's stories are the same. You are to write a concise account of your spiritual journey to date, with particular attention to those moments when you felt God leading you to the call you are now discerning.

- Biographical Information (Form 1, Discernment for Ordination Application and Social History)

This questionnaire asks you to share basic information about your personal, family, and religious history, and to describe the ministry that you envision as an ordained person. You will need to submit references and a digital photograph of yourself along with the completed questionnaire. At this time you should also begin the work of locating your baptismal and confirmation (or reception) records (which will be due October 31).

- Letter of Recommendation from Sponsoring Clergy Member

Along with your spiritual autobiography and biographical information, you will also submit a letter from your clergy sponsor that recommends to the bishop that you continue discernment about ordination. The letter should reflect the clergy member's conversations with you, as well as their overall knowledge of you, your past and current ministries in the Church, and their reasons for believing your call to be from God.

2. Parish Discernment Committee (PDC) – TO BE COMPLETED BY JULY 15

After you have completed and submitted all three of the application materials indicated above, your next step will be to participate in conversations with a Parish Discernment Committee. It cannot be overemphasized that all discernment of ordained ministry occurs in partnership with the Church—the People of God—and is not just a matter of the individual's own discernment. To request and initiate this bilateral process of discernment, please contact our Discernment-Conversations Coordinator discernment-conversations@edsd.org, who will identify two trained conveners to guide a PDC that will include people from your congregation. Your sponsoring clergy, with input from you, will appoint the congregational members, and their selection should consider their capacity for faithful, objective listening. Ultimately, the PDC's purpose is to discern with you the type of ministry to which God calls you, even if that might differ from what you currently understand it to be. All participants in the PDC should approach this discernment with open hearts and minds, and without foregone conclusions. To achieve that degree of objectivity, it is wisest to choose PDC members who are not your closest friends and supporters. Together with your sponsoring priest, you should look for PDC members who are wise, prayerful, and committed to asking careful, discerning questions. After the series of PDC meetings has concluded, the committee will create a report that summarizes your conversations and explains their conclusions. They will submit the report to your sponsoring clergy, to the vestry/bishop's committee, and to the bishop's executive assistant (see contact info above) for confidential sharing with the bishop and the COM.

3. Vestry Nomination – TO BE COMPLETED BY JULY 31

Once the final PDC report has been submitted to all parties, the sponsoring clergy member will put your nomination on the vestry/bishop's committee agenda. Following an affirmative vote, the vestry/bishop's committee will formalize your nomination in a Letter of Nomination (Form 8), which they must then submit to the bishop's executive assistant (see contact info above).

4. Interview with the Commission on Ministry – AUGUST COM MEETING

After the Letter of Nomination from the vestry/bishop's committee has been submitted, the COM will schedule an interview with you, and then vote on recommending you to the bishop for nominee status.

5. Notification from the Bishop

The bishop, after considering the COM's recommendation and reviewing the input submitted through this process, will decide whether to move you forward as a nominee, and then notify you of the decision.

6. Your Formal Acceptance of Nominee Status – AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AFTER RECEIVING VESTRY NOMINATION (FORM 2)

Upon notification by the bishop of an affirmative decision, you will need to submit to the bishop a written letter of acceptance in order to become a nominee. Canonically, a formal discernment process of NO LESS THAN 18 months will begin on the date of your acceptance, but it may take longer than that to complete formal training or other steps as required for the process. Depending on your particular circumstances, as well as on your good attention to the steps of the process, you may be eligible for ordination after 18 months of formal discernment—but please follow the instructions for the coming stages closely!

CHECKLIST ~ Stage 1: Inquirer

Please follow this checklist in stepwise order. Should you need clarification of any steps, please refer back to the instructions for Stage 1 that are provided on pp. 3 - 5.

Stage 2: Nominee

Having fruitfully completed your initial inquiry and discernment, you will now explore more deeply the possibility that God may truly be calling you to ordained ministry. Formerly, you would have been called an “aspirant” at this stage, but the expression nominee—the current canonical designation—reminds us that the People of God, acting through your congregation and the diocese, participate integrally with you, and raise you up, in the discernment of your calling. You now enter into full engagement with formation and the process, which among other activities will include connecting regularly with a spiritual director, proposing and carrying out your own ministry project, and submitting the application materials specific to this stage.

If you somehow have not yet submitted to the bishop a written acceptance of your nomination, please know that your status as a nominee will only begin upon the bishop’s reception of your letter. Your written acceptance is specifically what initiates the canonically-required 18-months minimum of discernment and formation that must be completed before admission to ordination. However, depending upon your particular circumstances, it may take longer than that to complete formal training or other steps of the process.

We readily acknowledge that keeping up with all of this can be challenging, so please do your best to complete everything in an organized and timely manner, so that you can submit the last of your requirements by at least a couple weeks ahead of the discernment retreat. Should you have even small concerns or issues regarding any aspect of the process, we encourage you to bring them to the COM chair (com@edsd.org), or to your liaison, as soon as you become aware of them.

Please submit all requested materials to:

The Executive Assistant to the Bishop, Erin McDougal
\(EMcDougal@edsd.org\), 619-481-5454),
who will direct them to the appropriate recipients.

A. Expanding Your Support System

By this point in your life, you likely enjoy a circle of support, intimately small or expansively large, that may include family, friends, a significant other, clergy, parish members, or yet others. Now that you are a nominee, a couple of additions to that circle will be appropriate, as indicated below.

1. COM Liaison – ASSIGNED AT SEPTEMBER COM MEETING

To foster supportive contact with you, and to ensure that the bishop and the COM stay up to date on your progress, the Commission on Ministry will appoint one of its members to maintain meaningful communication with you (in-person, Zoom, email, etc.) on a monthly basis. This regular interaction with a liaison starts with the nominee stage and continues through the subsequent stages of the ordination process.

2. Spiritual Director – IDENTIFIED BY OCTOBER 31

If you have not already initiated a confidential relationship with a spiritual director, you should do so right away at the outset of your nominee status. Your spiritual director should have training in spiritual direction, and may not be your clergy sponsor, who serves a distinct and separate role in your discernment. Although spiritual direction may intersect at times with your exploration of a call to ordained ministry, its main objective is to deepen your life of faith. Please provide the name of your spiritual director to your COM liaison.

B. Administrative & Procedural Requirements

To ensure that the following are completed in a timely manner, please attend to them as soon as possible, and submit them to the bishop's executive assistant.

1. Forms for Prompt Submission:

a. Waiver of Information (Form 2) – DUE SEPTEMBER 30

b. Financial Information (Form 3) – DUE OCTOBER 31

If your information on this form includes a request for financial aid, then be sure to submit it by October 31 of the year before such assistance would be applicable.

c. Background-Check forms – DUE SEPTEMBER 30

To get started with the background-check materials, please contact the bishop's executive assistant (Erin McDougal, EMcDougal@edsd.org, 619-481-5454), to whom you will also submit all required forms. You will share the cost of a credit and criminal background check with your congregation. The check is payable to EDSD. You will also need to complete Form 7 granting us permission to do the background check.

2. Certificates and Transcripts – DUE OCTOBER 31

Some of these may take a while to locate or to obtain, so it will be best not to delay searching for them.

a. Certificates of baptism, confirmation and/or reception (or parish documents certifying them). Photocopies are acceptable.

b. Official transcripts for all post-secondary education

3. Psychological Evaluation – COMPLETED BY OCTOBER 31

a. Evaluation

Please schedule your psychological evaluation appointments with Dr. Suzanne Watson, M. Div, by phone or text at 858-755-1901 or by email at drwatson@delmarpsychiatry.com. If you would like to learn more about Dr. Watson's background and practice, please visit <https://delmarpsychiatry.com/>.

The total time for the psychological evaluation is approximately six to eight-hours over two to three visits that are held both in person and by video. The initial appointment covers the nominee's family of origin, personal and work history, and may include testing if time allows. If testing is not completed an additional appointment will be scheduled. A concluding appointment includes clarification of emerging psychological issues, test feedback and issues related to the aspirant's wellness in the future. The first appointment will be in-person. Testing may occur either in-person or online or a combination of both. The concluding appointment may be in person or by video.

Please complete the three forms listed below and provide them to Dr. Watson and to the bishop's executive assistant before your scheduled meetings.

- Life History Questionnaire (Form 4)
- Behavioral Screening Questionnaire (Form 5)
- EDSW Waiver of Information (Form 2)

b. Reports

Based on information collected in the history form, the psychological tests and the interviews, Dr. Watson prepares and forwards to the Diocese her report. The Diocese is the owner of the report.

C. Formational Projects

Ministry Project – COMPLETED BY NOVEMBER 30 The ministry project provides an opportunity for you to envision and implement a short-term ministry, either in your congregation or in the community. Here is how to proceed:

a. Submit a ministry-project proposal for COM approval. – DUE BY SEPTEMBER 1

Prior approval of the COM is required. And so, before starting anything, please submit a one-page project-proposal to the bishop's executive assistant, who will forward it to the COM for approval. Your ministry project should:

- be designed with the support and agreement of your clergy sponsor;
- involve you in an activity of Christian faith and leadership;
- preferably be something that adds to, and is different from, what is already being done in your congregation;
- include other people in its implementation;
- be manageable enough to complete in six weeks to six months.

b. Submit a report on the completed project.

Upon completing your ministry project, submit a final report accompanied by your clergy sponsor's signed reflections on the project's process and outcome. In the interest of exploring what you learn in this project, we hope to see your theological reflection based on your experience, as well as anything you might have learned as a leader within a faith community context.

2. Writing Project: Essay Reflections – COMPLETED BY OCTOBER 31

Please reflect on the following questions by writing thoughtful personal responses to them.

- Who is Jesus Christ to you, and what is the Good News that we are called to proclaim by word and example?
- How in our demographically diverse diocese, and to whom, do you envision yourself sharing the Good News of Christ through ordained ministry? How would that be different from your ministry as a lay person?
- What is your vision of spiritual leadership for the Church and for the world? How have you seen that kind of leadership enacted in your own life and ministry?
- Describe your spiritual practices and comment about God's place in your life.

D. Moving Forward to Postulancy

1. Discernment Retreat – HELD IN DECEMBER

If you have completed all of the above tasks, activities, and submissions, the COM and the bishop will invite you to participate in some pivotal moments of discernment during a prayerful, well-organized retreat. Prior to the retreat, the COM will have reviewed all of your application materials (with the exception of the confidential materials that are read only by the bishop and the COM chair). You will spend the day in quiet reflection, in prayer, and in thoughtful conversations with the members of the COM, the Bishop, and others as invited. Following the retreat, the COM will make a recommendation to the bishop about each nominee's advancement to postulancy. Shortly after deciding, the bishop will communicate the respective decision to each nominee.

2. Appointment with the Bishop

If affirmed to move on to the postulant stage, you will be invited to meet with the bishop to discuss your call to ordained ministry. To make an appointment, contact the bishop's executive assistant.

CHECKLIST ~ Stage 2: Nominee

Stage 3: Postulant

As your discernment continues into the postulant stage, your specific ministerial formation will involve academic study, consultations with a spiritual director, field education, and other experiential training. The time you spend as a postulant may vary, as it reflects the pace of your course of study and preparation.

Please submit all requested materials to:
The Executive Assistant to the Bishop, Erin McDougal
(EMcDougal@edsd.org, 619-481-5454),
who will direct them to the appropriate recipients.

A. Medical Examination – DUE JUNE 30 OF FIRST YEAR OF POSTULANCY

As soon as you can, schedule a routine physical exam with your physician. You will need to take Form 6 (Medical Examination) with you to the exam, so that the doctor can fill it out and sign it.

B. Communication with the Bishop

1. Setting Your Formation Plans – COMPLETED BY MARCH 31

With admission to postulancy, the bishop will be in dialogue with you to determine and approve your plan of study and formation. This plan will take into consideration your particular life circumstances, your formation background, and whether you are preparing for the vocational diaconate or the priesthood. In recent years, our seminarians have participated in a variety of courses of study—a couple of them offered in Spanish—that have included residential, commuter, and online programs. To schedule this appointment, please contact the bishop's executive assistant.

2. Ember-Week Letters

As a postulant—and also later as a candidate—you are canonically required to submit a letter to the bishop during each of the Ember-Week cycles that follow the occasions listed below. The letter should reflect on your academic, personal, spiritual, and formational development.

- a. St. Lucy's Day, Dec. 13
- b. Ash Wednesday
- c. The Day of Pentecost
- d. Holy Cross Day, Sept. 14

C. Completing Your Formation

Completion of these requirements typically begins during postulancy and continues into candidacy, depending on the scope and timing of one's formation plan.

1. Academic Study

Undertake the academic plan that you developed with the bishop's approval.

2. Field Education

All who are preparing for the diaconate or the priesthood are required to take two semesters of field education. You will work with the bishop on finding a suitable field education placement. Field Education involves a supervised placement in a congregation for ministerial work, and includes classroom work, reading, and theological reflection on your experiences in church leadership and ministry.

3. Community-Service Placement

All are also required to meet a community-service requirement, which may be met during either the postulant or candidate stage, as follows:

- Vocational-diaconate postulants/candidates may meet this requirement with either a summer placement in a community-service organization or a unit of CPE.
- Priesthood postulants/candidates take a unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE), which involves a supervised placement in a hospital or other community ministry, or participate in a comparable chaplaincy or pastoral care experience.

4. Transcripts and Certificates of Completion

Upon completion of the various components of formation, please submit transcripts and certificates of completion to the bishop's executive assistant.

D. Application for Candidacy

Because the length of postulancy can vary greatly, depending on the duration of one's studies and other preparation, you will need to work out the timing of your application for candidacy in consultation with the bishop and/or the COM.

1. Two Documents for Submission

a. Your Application Form DUE MARCH 1 OF YEAR PRIOR TO ORDINATION DATE

At the point in time determined in prior consultation with the bishop and/or the COM, submit the Application for Candidacy (Form 10) to the bishop's executive assistant.

b. Letter of Support from Sponsoring Congregation DUE MARCH 1 OF YEAR PRIOR TO ORDINATION DATE

Concurrently with your application for candidacy, the vestry/bishop's committee of your sponsoring congregation will submit a Letter of Support for Candidacy (Form 11) to the bishop's executive assistant.

2. Interviews

a. Commission on Ministry. MARCH MEETING IN YEAR PRIOR TO ORDINATION DATE

Upon receiving the above two documents, the COM will schedule an interview with you, typically during a monthly meeting on the second Tuesday of the month. Following this interview, the COM will make its recommendation to the bishop regarding your advancement to candidacy.

b. Standing Committee. MARCH MEETING IN YEAR PRIOR TO ORDINATION DATE

The bishop will then request approval of your candidacy from the diocese's Standing Committee, which will schedule an interview with you, typically during a monthly meeting on the third Tuesday of the month. In terms of timing, it is likely that your interviews with the COM and the Standing Committee will take place in adjacent weeks.

3. The Bishop's Decision. Shortly after the above two interviews, the bishop will notify you of her/his decision concerning your appointment as a candidate for ordination.

CHECKLIST ~ Stage 3: Postulant

Please follow this checklist in stepwise order. Should you need clarification of any steps, please refer back to the instructions for Stage 3 that are provided on pp. 12 - 14.

Stage 4: Candidate

During candidacy, you will continue your discernment and formation, and also finish whatever may remain of your academic studies, field education, and community-service placement(s). At this fourth stage, you may feel growing excitement as you anticipate the ordained ministry that you and God's People—the Church—have been exploring together. Keep in mind, though, that there are still final recommendations and approvals to be received, each of which involves further consideration of God's call to you. We encourage you to approach these last steps of ordination-discernment in a spirit of patience and humility.

Please submit all requested materials to:

The Executive Assistant to the Bishop, Erin McDougal
