

Repairers of the Breach:

A Holy Week Service of Lament & Public Witness

In a time when many communities are experiencing fear, division, and uncertainty—amid violent immigration enforcement and the targeting of vulnerable neighbors—we gather to pray, lament, and stand as peacemakers together.

Monday
30th of March
6:30pm - 7:30pm

What to Expect

The Episcopal Diocese of San Diego invites the Christian communities of San Diego to gather for a service of prayer, lament, and public witness at Good Samaritan Episcopal Church. The evening will begin with an indoor liturgy and continue with a public procession and closing rite in the community.

6:30pm

SERVICE OF PRAYER AND LAMENT

We will gather at Good Samaritan Episcopal Church, UTC for an ecumenical service of prayer and lament. Clergy, please wear purple stoles.

7:00pm

MARCH TO THE TROLLEY STATION

Following the service, we will march to the Executive Drive Trolley Station, where we will close with final prayers and public witness. Participants are encouraged to bring signs and religious symbols, but please no flags.

Transportation will be available to the trolley station for those who cannot march.
